Dear Sir,

The Ambassador of Israel has forwarded your letter, KASA 87-78 dated December 31, 1987 to me to reply to you.

We regret that your previous letter dated May 11, 1987 was not answered. We are sorry for that.

The procedure for acceptance of Korean document translated into English language for legal purposes is as follows:

1. The translation should be certified by a notary or any other authority which is authorized by Korean law to certify such document.
2. The signature and the seal of the notary or the authority should be authenticated by Korean Foreign Ministry.
3. The Korean Embassy in Tokyo has to authenticate the signature of Korean Foreign Ministry.

Sincerely yours,

David Gabay
Counselor & Consul
