Dear Sirs:

In reference to your kind letter KASA-87-17, dated November 4, 1987, I have the honour to inform you that until now the Embassy of Mexico accepts the translator's certification (Form PTF-101), attached to the translated paper as a valid document for visa purposes.

As far as we know, such practice will be maintained in the future unless instructions on the contrary from our Government. In any case, it must be noted that the translations and certifications should be done by a Public Translator specifically authorized by the Korean Government.

If you have further questions on this matter, please do not hesitate to contact us again.

Truly Yours,

Ricardo Galán.
Ambassador.
